

A chairde,

Please find below some guidelines for accessing additional reading material as required for your child. Whilst nothing beats reading and engaging with a physical storybook this list may be useful at this time for children to choose a book that they like for extra reading based on their interests.

This is not meant to be an exhaustive list of books to read. It is to be treated as a 'menu' to dip in and out of and not as a 'prescription'.

Suggestion : Children would choose one book in Irish and one book in English every week to read and enjoy.

Go raibh maith agaibh

Click on link above to access over 7,000 books free of charge at this time.

Suggestion for Rang 1: Continue reading Class Reader/ Tricky Word Reader every day (2-3 pages)

Children may select books from link above for extra reading or to learn more about topics that interest them.

Irish Reading – See next page for suggestions

Suggestion for Rang 2 : Read 1 story in Irish every week. Children can choose any story. Text of story and audio support provided for each storybook.

We understand that it may not be possible to print out the story book. Another possible option is to try open both links below using two different tabs/windows to allow children see the book and follow along with audio playing at the same time.
